

Study Guide to Accompany
 The Constitution Made Easy by Mike Holler

Written and Updated by

Barby Mouring

with permission from Mike Holler

Sen★Sim

The Senate in a Classroom

 A photograph of four students sitting in a circle, engaged in a classroom simulation. They are surrounded by a large American flag graphic.

A group simulation of Senate proceedings during which each student portrays a Senator, considers platform issues in caucus meetings, writes and introduces legislation, participates in committee meetings, and debates on the Senate floor

Barby Mouring • mourings@gmail.com